Section 4 - How to fill out the form

Section 1 – Identification of account holder

Use Section 1 to identify the account holder. Sometimes the account holder's address may be different from the mailing address. If this is the case, give both addresses.

The account holder is the person listed or identified as the holder of the financial account by the financial institution that maintains the account. But, when a person other than a financial institution holds a financial account for the benefit of or for another person as an agent, custodian, nominee, signatory, investment advisor, or intermediary, they are not considered the account holder. In such cases, the account holder is the person for whom the account is held.

If a trust or an estate is listed as the holder of a financial account, the trust or the estate is the account holder, not the trustee or the liquidator. Similarly, if a partnership is listed as the holder of a financial account, the partnership is the account holder, not the partners in the partnership. In such cases, fill out all Sections in the Tax Residency Self-Certification for Entities.

Section 2 – Declaration of tax residence

Use Section 2 to identify the account holder's tax residence and taxpayer identification number. If the account holder does not have such a number, give the reason.

Generally, an individual will be a tax resident of a jurisdiction if, under the laws of that jurisdiction, they pay or should be paying tax there because of their domicile, residence, or a similar criterion.

Individuals who are tax residents in more than one jurisdiction can rely on the tiebreaker rules in tax conventions (when they apply) to resolve cases of dual tax residence.

For more information on tax residency, talk to your tax adviser or go to oecd.org/tax/automatic-exchange/crs-implementation-and-assistance/tax-residency/#d.en.347760.

A taxpayer identification number, often referred to by its abbreviation TIN, is a unique identifier made of letters or numbers that the jurisdiction assigns to an individual. The jurisdiction uses the TIN in administering its tax laws to identify the individual. Enter the TIN in its official format. For more details about acceptable TINs, go to oecd.org/tax/automatic-exchange/crs-implementation-and-assistance/tax-identification-numbers/#d.en.347759.

Reasons that fall under "Reason 3: Other reason" for not having a TIN include not being eligible to receive one. However, if you are eligible to receive a TIN but you do not have one, you have 90 days to apply for one and 15 days after you receive it to give it to Computershare.

Section 3 – Certification

Make sure you fill in and sign Section 3 before you return this form to Computershare.
